The Ferrari 360 Spider really is a beauty beyond compare - to behold this car on a glorious English summer's day with the roof down and its gleaming Rosso Corsa paintwork contrasting so perfectly with the immaculate crema hide interior is to gaze upon what many will perceive as motoring perfection - there will always be faster cars (not much though), bigger cars and more expensive cars but as a package the 360 Spider will take an enormous amount of beating. The lines possess all the finest qualities of the female form subtly blended so uniquely with immense power and Italian style and charisma that can only be Ferrari. Super cars will come and go but a red Ferrari is a love affair for life.

This has to be the ultimate self drive sports car hire - what could possibly tempt you to look beyond this automotive dream.
